

The President of Conference the Rev. Loraine Mellor and Mrs. Jill Baker, Vice-President are to visit the Scotland District on Tuesday 24th and Wednesday 25th of April. The visit will be hosted jointly by Strathclyde and Ayrshire & Renfrewshire Circuits.

On Tuesday afternoon there will be a guided walk around Paisley Town (for about 1hr) beginning at c.2pm finishing at Central Hall for tea/coffee c.3pm. Both the walk and the tea are open to all. There will then be an opportunity for discussion/questions to President/Vice-President at around 4pm. Again everyone is welcome.

Tuesday evening at 7pm—there is a District Service at Pollokshaws Methodist Church where the President of the Conference will speak. Music with Strathclyde Praise Band .

Everyone welcome to attend, if you need transport please speak to one of the Stewards.

Please note that Synod will take place in Paisley on 27th and 28th April.

Help will be needed on both the Friday and the Saturday to serve tea and coffee and to set up for the lunch etc.

There will be a lot of visitors from around the District. More information to follow, please offer to help if you can.

PAISLEY METHODIST CHURCH
CENTRAL HALL, PAISLEY

A warm welcome to Church this morning. The service will be led by Local Preacher Jan Sutch Pickard.

Before the service begins please take time to pray for Jan as she brings God's word to us. Pray for those unable to join us this morning and ask God to bless them where they are.

For those with hearing aids, there is a loop system; please turn the control on your hearing aid to "T" position.

Tea/coffee is served in the hall following the service please stay and join in the fellowship.
